REFLECTION

Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Where do you live?

The question of the disciples to Jesus- Where do you live?- in search for God, the quest for truth, love and meaning.

And you ask it sometimes in peace; you sit by peaceful water or rushing waves, or in a quiet room, and wonder without worry.

Or you hold a hand and know you are loved, and you live in the world of love, and you wonder in joy at the source of it all.

Or you struggle with loss and hurt, or with loneliness and confusion and the question hurts and you wish it would go away.

And the question leads to meaning, to truth, and to love.

Come and see:
be prepared to be surprised
By beauty, joy and peace,
By courage and by strength.

Come and see:
Be prepared to be opened to the love of another
So that it can change you,

Come and see:
and you will know that God lives,
and you’re glad to ask the question:
Where do you live?

Reflection

God’s call is mysterious; it comes in the darkness of faith. It is so fine, so subtle, that it is only with the deepest silence within us that we can hear it.

And yet nothing is surer or stronger, nothing is so decisive and overpowering, as that call.

This call is uninterrupted: God is always calling us,

Carlo Carretto

Prayer against the Coronavirus

Most Glorious Queen of Heaven & Mother of God, You whom the Blessed Trinity has crowned with unequalled glory. You are the Sovereign Queen over all God’s Creation. I place myself & all my loved ones under the power, protection & sovereignty of your Crown. Under the protection of your crown & through your immense intercessory power, I ask you to spare us all from the effects of the coronavirus. Dearest Mother & Queen, more Mother than Queen, we, your children in Christ Jesus, ask you to obtain for us an end to the spread of the virus. Amen.

An Act Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You.
