REFLECTION

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Follow me

We follow Jesus, like the Twelve, because we are drawn by him; drawn and attracted by the way this man Jesus lives, speaks, dies and rises.

Something in him appeals; maybe it's the wish to heal, or his love for the poor, or his forgiveness, so total, or his desire to change the world, or because he stands for what is good: for justice, peace, equality.

Or just because he is a friend, and because he is the fact of God, the word of God, the son of God.

Like us, in all but our sin, one of us, son of God, and son of Mary too.

People left a lot to follow him, they left their dreams and their burdens, their families, and their businesses, and gave up their lives, drawn, attracted, challenged as we are now, by his words: Come, follow me.

Trust that these words draw you, attract you, trust that these words are worth the whole love of your life, for they are loving words of God.

REFLECTION

Good news for sinners

Today we are in danger of being drowned in bad news. Jesus began his ministry by announcing good news. What was this good news? That the kingdom of heaven had come. The Kingdom stands for the fulfilment of the promises, the fullness of God's blessings, in short, the new order of things, Forgiveness is available. Recovery is possible. God's love is unconditional and is available to us in Christ. All we have to do is recognise our need, and seek his help with humility and sincerity. Unless we repent we can't hear the good news.

Prayer against the Coronavirus

Most Glorious Queen of Heaven & Mother of God, You whom the Blessed Trinity has crowned with unequalled glory. You are the Sovereign Queen over all God's Creation. I place myself & all my loved ones under the power, protection & sovereignty of your Crown. Under the protection of your crown & through your immense intercessory power, I ask you to spare us all from the effects of the coronavirus. Dearest Mother & Queen, more Mother than Queen, we, your children in Christ Jesus, ask you to obtain for us an end to the spread of the virus. Amen.

MASS CARDS/BOUQUETS

Are available from the Parochial house.

An Act Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You.
