REFLECTION

Sundays Gospel – (Matthew 21:28-32)

The love of God for all

To accept that God first loved us, through no merits of our own, and that God is always there for us, although we forget God, is more difficult for us than following God's commandments.

To accept that God loves us just as we are, unconditionally, gratuitously, and forever, is more difficult for us than to sacrifice as we should for God and for others.

To accept that God forgives absolutely and does not hold our past against us is more difficult for us than to repent of the evil we have done.

To accept this love of God is the only path to freedom and interior peace. And it is the underlying reason why we should accept each other and love each other just as we are.

Segundo Galilea, The Music of God

AUTUMN DUES 2020

The Autumn Dues will be collected over the coming weeks. These dues are for the upkeep of the priests who serve this parish. We are grateful to all the dues collectors for their work and the generous support of the parishioners. Dues books and envelopes are available for collection in the Sacristy. There has been a significant decline in the number of our Dues collectors and unfortunately we have been unsuccessful obtaining new volunteers. In light of the current Covid-19 Pandemic, in the areas where there is no Dues collector we shall be distributing an envelope to each household with a note, asking to return it, with your donation to the Sacristy/Parochial House, or in some areas to the person who delivered the Dues envelope to them (name and address will be provided on the envelope). We very greatly appreciate your generous support and your co-operation with this new method of our Dues collection. Thank you.

THE PRIORY INSTITUTE are now taking registrations for autumn online theology courses. These courses are up to degree level. For further information visit <https://prioryinstitute.com/>

They could be just the thing as the nights draw in and we look to an uncertain winter.
