REFLECTION - Working for Christ

To do the work of Christ is really quite simple. It means to be faithful in little things, for to be faithful in little things is a big thing. It means to do one's task, no matter how humble, not only thoroughly but joyfully. It means to make oneself available, yet never to seek the limelight. It means to make oneself useful, without seeking to push oneself. It means to carry one's own burden, without, as far as possible, becoming a burden on others. In a word, it means to be at one's post, helpful and faithful, loyal and constant. Lord, make me an instrument For the building of Your kingdom.

Sent out in pairs

In the centre of our lives, of every day and week, in work and in the home, we live in a circle of relationships.

We know that problems are diminished and burdens lightened, by sharing them with another. Decisions come more easily when we talk them over, suffering is lessened by the comfort of another.

And whenever we meet in the name of Jesus, in the name of love, in the name of justice, He is with us.

To preach His word, He sent His disciples in pairs, for we do not live our faith alone.

Like a river gathers its fullness from the smaller rivers flowing into it, we grow in faith from the faith of others.

In prayer together, in sharing struggles of faith, in helping another in sorrow, in gathering together to work for justice- whether in pairs or larger groups, we are engaged in the work of Jesus, The one who worked with and sent others on His work of God.
