SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER

Reflection. Many other signs

*They remembered some things Jesus did, wrote down others,
 but there were more.*

*There are other books where the signs of Jesus are written, the books of everyone's life.
 You and I are the signs of Jesus:*

The ordinary kindnesses of an ordinary day, like a message brought for a housebound person, like the daily care of father and mother, the care of children for parents and family, signs of the love and care of Jesus.

The signs that Jesus is alive: remembering the bereaved and the sick, creating employment and good housing, helping the work of others in a developing country; signs of the love and care of Jesus, that he is raised from death, and we are writing the resurrection story for today.

And in the suffering of people we write the words of the risen Lord, especially the support given where people suffer through others: the mother whose child is in prison, the family suffering through addiction and violence, the memory of the violence or greed of others; when support is offered and given, there is the gospel written again for today

There are many other signs that Jesus worked and the disciples saw, but they are not recorded in the gospel.

They are recorded in the book of life, yours and mine, known only to those close to us and to God himself.
