It is worth remembering: "At the end of our lives we will not be judged by how many diplomas we have received, how much money we made or how many great things we did. We will be judged by: I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was naked and you clothed me. I was homeless and you took me in." (Blessed Teresa of Calcutta). We in Holy Redeemer wish you all the happiness in the world and every good wish for the future, whatever it may hold.

REFLECTION

Sunday's Gospel Matthew 18:21-35
 When we forgive we free ourselves of the burden of bitterness, and we free the other person of the burden of guilt. But our forgiveness must come from the heart, which means it must be true, sincere, and warm. A cold forgiveness is not much use. Forgiveness should start now. Putting it off only deepens the wound, prolongs bitterness, and postpones happiness. Life is short, time is fleeting. Today is the day to forgive. Lord, deliver us from the poison of bitterness, and give us the grace to forgive from the heart those who have offended us. Then we will know the warmth of your forgiveness.
