

15th May 2011 Fourth Sunday of Easter

TODAY IS VOCATIONS SUNDAY and is a day of prayer for all vocations - not just priesthood or religious life. Our Baptism means that we join Jesus in the mission of spreading the Gospel.

While it is important to recognise our common calling through Baptism to be an active member of the Christian Community, the Priesthood is an essential part of the Church. The role of the priest as leader in prayer, especially the Eucharist and other Sacrament; and as an animator of the Parish, means we will always need priest.

Please pray for the men who will be ordained to Priesthood especially our own local man, Damian Quigley, for Ryan McAleer who was ordained a deacon on Easter Monday, and Thomas McHugh who will be ordained at the end of May. Also as we pray, let us continue to ask the Lord for more men and women who are willing to say YES to religious life or priesthood. Obviously, the Church asks for prayer for more priests and religious brothers & sisters. We also pray for the strengthening of the vocation of Marriage, and finally we are aware that single people have a special calling to serve the Lord. Please pray for these intentions. Fr. Peter McAnenly Tel (028) 8772 2906 E-mail vocation@eircom.net www.armaghvocations.org for more information.
